FOREWORD

*"They carol our joys
And sing to our griefs . . .
The trees."*

Because many of the trees are familiar landmarks, and because the trees lend their influence to the natural beauty of the campus; because trees have afforded favorite haunts to the book-weary and lovelorn, and because they have spread their friendly branches over scenes and events that will become lingering memories, the Staff has focused the Spotlight on the Trees as a motif for the 1944 LAUREL.

have done it by being yourself."

Citizen, whose steady hand and understanding heart in "everyday's most quiet

1944 LAUREL

President

The present session has been one of the most significant in the history of Mars Hill College. The faculty and the students have been loyal and cooperative. It would be difficult to determine what the drop of one-third in enrollment has cost the college, particularly in those values which cannot be estimated in terms of money or other property. But this we know, there has been no lack of student leaders. The various organizations on the campus, religious and otherwise, have functioned well and the effects are evident in the spirit which now prevails among us.

The LAUREL Staff have worked under serious restrictions and handicaps, but there is assurance that the book which they are producing will be worthy of the Mars Hill standards and ideals. My warmest affection and good wishes attend each member of our college family who goes out from us this commencement.

Sincerely,

HOYT BLACKWELL.

CROSSWY YOUNG GARLAND GRIFFIN

BETTY CROSSWY, Clio—Betty, a transfer from Southern College in Florida, is quiet, resourceful, and something of a poet. In one short year she has found a place in the affections of many. She is a member of the Y. W. A.

BARBARA YOUNG, Clio—In spite of dormitory life, Barbara has studied enough to make the Science Club. With her photogenic mind she will have no trouble at all in diagnosing her cases when she becomes a doctor.

CATHERINE GARLAND, Clio—"Kay" is an attractive girl whom everybody loves even though she isn't an apple polisher. She is a Society officer, a member of the Glee Club, the Dramateers, and the Y. W. A. Council.

BESSIE GRIFFIN, Clio—A transfer from Erskine College, Bessie quickly made a place for herself here. She became an active member of the Glee Club, the Volunteer Band, the Y. T. C., and the Y. W. A.

RUTH POTEAT, Clio—Ruth is one of those girls who have pretty hair, rain or shine. She has been a Sunday School officer, a Y. W. A. officer, a member of the Band, of the Burke County Club, and of the Glee Club.

MARY SALES, Clio—Mary is the graceful little girl under the lovely black hair. She has been a Society officer, a B. T. U. officer, a member of the Glee Club, of the Band and of the Dramateers.

JEWELL DAVIDSON, Clio—Jewell's sincere interest in French has brought forth fruits, and it wouldn't surprise us to find her teaching French at Mars Hill in a few years. She is a B. T. U. officer, a member of the French Club, and a Sunday School officer.

POTEAT SALES DAVIDSON

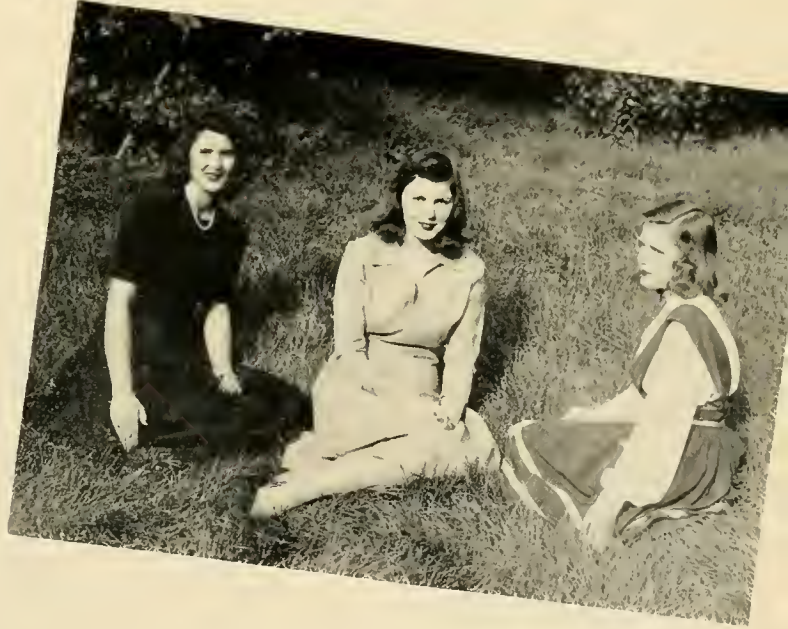

HAMPTON RICHARDSON LAMBERT THOMPSON

MERRILL DEAN HAMPTON, Eu—One of the popular "Wood-box" gang, Merrill plans to be a big business man, but Uncle Sam is using him in the army now.

JOHNNY RICHARDSON, Eu—We needed a man to do the job, therefore Johnny became assistant physical education director of the boys. An all-round sportsman and a jolly good fellow, he is a member of the Y. T. C., and sports editor of the LAUREL.

DIXON HENSON ROGERS

J. B. LAMBERT, Phi—Now one of the best bell ringers in captivity, J. B. expects to become a lawyer. Here he has been pulling a rope; later he expects to shoot a line. He's president of his Sunday School class, a B. T. U. officer, a Society officer, and a member of the Stanly-Cabarrus County Club.

HENRY THOMPSON, Eu—Henry's quiet ways have won him many friends. His specialty is science and blondes. He is a Sunday School secretary, a member of the German Club, and censor of the Euthalian Society.

GERALDINE DIXON, Non—A happy person is essential to every campus. "Jerry" is one of those people. She is a B. T. U. officer and a member of Y. W. A.

BETTY HENSON, Non—Her likable disposition is equalled only by her attractiveness. She is censor of Nonpareil Society and Y. W. A. circle leader.

BETTY ROGERS, Non—We've often wondered how one little head could hold so much, especially such a pretty blonde one. Betty is a Sunday School officer, a member of the Dramateers, and of the W. A. A. She has also been secretary and president of the French Club.

TEAGUE GADDY WILLIAMS

MILLCENT TEAGUE, Clio—Intelligent, straight-shooting, loving, and beloved—that's "Mill." She's taking a pre-wed course and she'll admit it. She is a B. T. U. officer, a Sunday School officer, president of the Home Makers Guild, and a member of the Science Club, the Y. T. C., Y. W. A. Council, Art Club, and Glee Club.

ROSEMARY GADDY, Non—Did you ever feel happy just because you were with a person? That's the way "Rosebud" makes one feel. She has been secretary of the C-I Class, a member of the Y. W. A. Council, a Society officer, secretary and vice-president of the I. R. C., and Art Club reporter.

MARTHA NELL WILLIAMS, Clio—"MN", monitor of second floor Spilman, is one of the most accommodating girls on the campus. She has a happy combination of frankness and dry humor. She is secretary of her Sunday School class.

JIMMIE SUE MORGAN, Clio—Jimmie Sue, whose laugh is contagious, has spread her share of this desirable disease at Mars Hill. She has been a B. T. U. officer, a Y. W. A. officer, secretary of the Senior Class, and second vice-president and censor of the Clio Society.

JOYCE ALLEN, Clio—Joyce is one of those "wholesome mountain gals"—natural beauty, wit, athletic ability! What more "art" there to be?

MIRIAM ATKINSON, Clio—Some people say that love and music make the world go 'round, but for Miriam it's laughter. She is a member of the Y. W. A., B. T. U., Glee Club, Dramateers, W. A. A., and the South Carolina Club.

HAZEL DOTSON, Clio—Hazel is as busy as a bee. And she has a reason to be, for she has been general secretary of Sunday School, a B. T. U. officer, president of Treat Dormitory, a Society officer, and a member of the Science Club, Y. W. A., and Virginia Club.

MORGAN ALLEN ATKINSON DOTSON

JACKIE WHITE, Non—You just have to look twice when you see Jackie. Maybe it's that blonde hair. She is a member of Y. W. A. and B. T. U.

ALICE FRYE, Clio—"It must be wonderful to have curly hair, if it's like Alice's." That is what one always hears about this young lady who is in the Hockey Club and on the Y. W. A. Council.

ADA DELLINGER, Clio—She is a creature of contrasts, dark hair, fair skin, quiet moods, and gay laughter. She has been a member of the Basketball Club, Volley Ball Club, a Y. W. A. officer, and a B. T. U. officer.

JANE FRAZIER, Clio—Martha Jane, alias Curley-Locks, alias the girl with the extra share of everything a girl could want, has been secretary of the Clio Society, a B. T. U. officer, a cheerleader, a member of Y. W. A., and a member of the Swimming Club.

MARJORIE MILLS, Clio—The "Jewel" is official amateur philosopher of New Dormitory. She spends her spare time being enthusiastic about Clio and her future in the field of medicine. She also finds time to be a society officer, a B. T. U. officer, and a Sunday School officer.

FRANCES HANCOCK, Clio—In Greece they had a girl something like "Fanny Mae". Helen of Troy was her name. Frances has been a Society officer, a member of the Archery Club, Basketball Club, Swimming Club, and a cheerleader.

MARTHA PEATROSS, Clio—"Pete" does her most diligent dreaming about Beethoven. She keeps the male population wondering what Ludwig had that they do not. One look at her and—no wonder they wonder. She has been president of the French Club, treasurer of the Senior Class, secretary and vice-president of the Clio Society, and a member of the Glee Club and Orchestra.

WHITE FRYE DELLINGER

FRAZIER MILLS HANCOCK PEATROSS

BYRD REID LOVINGOOD DUNCAN

GLENN BROWN, Phi—"Glamor-boy" Brown is quite a figure on the campus. He has been secretary and vice-president of the Phis, president of the I. R. C., vice-president of the Haywood County Club, general secretary of the B. T. U., B. T. U. president, advertising manager of the LAUREL, Sunday School secretary, vice-president of the Forensic Council, and commencement debater.

MARY LOUISE BYRD—This blonde version of Dorothy Lamour is better known as "Coota." Lovely and languid, should we say?! She is a Sunday School officer, a B. T. U. officer, a Davidson County Club officer, a member of the Archery Club, Hockey Club, and Home Makers Guild.

MILDRED REID—You'd never know that that quiet, pleasant girl is delving into such a deep subject as history for her major. Her friendship was missed when she failed to return to the campus after the Christmas holidays.

MAUREEN LOVINGOOD, Clio—What a color scheme, honey-colored hair, Irish blue eyes, and creamy complexion. In her "time out" from escaping the wolves on the campus, she has found time to be associate editor of the Hilltop, a Society officer, and a member of the Glee Club.

VIRGINIA DUNCAN, Non—"Jenny" is a hard-working girl who has a good time too. She has been a member of the W. A. A., a Sunday School officer, a B. T. U. officer, a member of the Band and Orchestra, and a member of the Glee Club.

LEWIS COLEMAN, Phi—"Coleman" has a magnetic personality that draws everyone's attention and respect. He has been a Society censor, president of the Volunteer Band, a member of the Ministerial Conference, and a participant in intramural sports.

EARL VAUGHAN, Eu—Earl is "excuputionary." He has been censor, vice-president, and president of the Eus. Also, he has been president of the Volunteer Band, treasurer of the B. S. U. Council, a member of the Forensic Club, I. R. C., and Ministerial Conference.

COLEMAN BROWN VAUGHAN

NEELY FOGLEMAN CATO

MARIE NEELY—Marie can really play that piano. She is a B. T. U. officer, Y. W. A. circle leader, a member of the French Club, of Y. T. C., and of the Glee Club.

LORICE FOGLEMAN, Non—You know—that intelligent one. Lorice has been vice-president of the Scriblerus Club, B. T. U. president, representative to the Literary Festival at Coker College, Hilltop reporter, and Y. W. A. circle leader.

MILDRED CATO, Non—"Mickey" doesn't look like the artistic type, but you'd be surprised. She has been art editor of the LAUREL, representative to the Literary Festival at Coker College, poster chairman of Y. W. A. Council, and a Society officer.

GERALDINE FARRAR, Non—"Gerry" is the cute little 113 pounds you can see flitting here and there most any time of the day. She has been censor and vice-president of the Nonpareil Society, president of B. T. U., secretary of B. S. U. Council, Sunday School officer, and a member of Y. W. A.

NADINE PAXTON, Non—The vociferous Miss P. radiates an enthusiasm that made her a success in her work as anniversary president of the Nons, in the Orchestra, the Y. W. A., and the Y. T. C. She has been Regional Club president, B. T. U. president, Sunday School superintendent, Volunteer Band president, and a member of Spanish Club and the B. S. U. Council.

NANCY WALTERS, Clio—Nancy is majoring in Crate, boogie woogie, Clio, and an A. B. She has been chaplain and pianist of Clio, B. T. U. president, a member of the Y. W. A., of the Y. T. C., and of the Volunteer Band.

FARRAR PAXTON WALTERS HARBISON

SUSAN HARBISON, Non—Let's give a cheer for Susan. She's been giving them for Alma Mater all year long. She has been secretary, vice-president, and commencement president of the Nonpareil Society, president of a Y. T. C. group, a member of W. A. A., of the tennis team, of the Spanish Club, and of the Y. W. A. Council.

RUSHING WOMBLE HILL

NANCY RUSHING, Clio—Although "Nan" was here for only one semester, she won many friends. While here she was in the Dramatics Club, Speech Choir, and Glee Club.

VIRGINIA WOMBLE, Non—"Womble's" drawl sways us with its influence, not mentioning her swaying personality—or should we say "slaying"? She has belonged to the Y. T. C., Y. W. A. Council, Speech Choir, Dramatics Club, and Home Makers Guild. She has also been a Society officer and dormitory president.

BEULAH HILL, Clio—You hardly know she's around at first. A few of her inspiring words make you understand her success as chaplain and secretary of Clio, I. R. C. secretary, member of the B. S. U. Council, and president of the Y. T. C.

McIVER JONES NEWTON RICHARDSON

BRUCE McIVER, Eu—Bruce is the "mailman" who always has a song on his lips. He has been C-I president of the Euthalian Society, president of a Y. T. C. group, vice-president of the B. S. U., and a Sunday School and B. T. U. officer.

CRATE JONES, Phi—Crate is the type instinctively designated as a leader. The fruit of his efforts as director of the B. T. U., member of the Ministerial Conference, of the Volunteer Band, and commencement president of the Phis will show anyone why.

LEROEY NEWTON, Eu—Leroy always does have complications in his social life, doesn't he? Yet he has found time to be vice-president, secretary, and president of the Euthalian Society, a member of the B. S. U. Council, of the Virginia Club, and of the Volunteer Band.

WAYNE RICHARDSON, Eu—"You'll never know just how much I miss you—" That's what the entire campus sang for "Born-to-Lose" Richardson when he left to wear the Navy blue. If he does as much for our Uncle as he did for Euthalia as anniversary president, for the Hilltop as managing editor, and for the Physical Education Department in his athletic work, the war is as good as won.

MARGARET HOYLE Non—"Maggie" is always described in superlatives. She is very blonde, has a super voice, and a wonderful personality. She "dood" it as censor of Nonpareil, a member of I. R. C., French Club, Ensemble, Trio, Y. W. A., as a general B. T. U. officer and Sunday School president.

VELMA TROTT, Clio—Velma always does her best when opportunities come her way. She has been a group president of Y. T. C., a Y. W. A. officer, reporter for the Hilltop, and a member of the Dramatics Club.

EVELYN McLEOD, Non—When it comes to music, "Red" can do just anything—sing and play, whether it be classical or popular. She has been pianist, secretary, and vice-president of the Nonpareil Society, a member of the Glee Club, Ensemble, and Trio, on the B. S. U. Council, a member of the Scriblerus Club, and pianist for the Swing Orchestra.

MARY ELIZABETH MASON, Non—Mary "Lib's" genuine good nature and outstanding abilities have won for her a host of Mars Hill friends. She has been Y. W. A. Council secretary, a member of the Science Club, and president of her B. T. U.

DOROTHY JARVIS, Non—"Dot's" interests include religious education, music, people, society, and almost everything else one can think of. She has been in the orchestra, a Society officer, in the Volunteer Band, Y. W. A. personal service chairman, a member of the Spanish Club, and a member of the Scriblerus Club.

IRENE GLASS, Non—If you're seeking to remedy your homesickness, just talk to Irene and find solace in her soothing voice and consoling, understanding nature. She has been Y. W. A. president, a Society officer, a member of Volunteer Band, Y. T. C., Scriblerus Club, Science Club, and Orchestra.

MARGARET CHAMBERS, Clio—If ever there's a job that has to be done, Margaret is always willing to do it with a smile. She has been Y. W. A. treasurer, a B. T. U. officer, a member of the Spanish Club, and a member of Volunteer Band.

HOYLE TROTT McLEOD

MASON JARVIS GLASS CHAMBERS

GELLERSTEDT LESTER CASKIE

BOB GELLERSTEDT, Eu—The New York Times may as well tell the editor in chief to move over. Bob is coming that way one of these days. He has got his start in that direction as managing editor of the Hilltop. His other interests include being secretary and vice-president of the Eus and a member of the Scriblerus Club.

HERBERT LESTER, Pbi—"Herby" is a top cartoonist, and he really likes tennis and ping pong. He has been censor and vice-president of the Philomathian Society, and has a personality that grows on one.

DABNEY CASKIE, Eu—This curly blond-headed boy, who caused the girls to swoon, has been a member of the Science Club. His personality made him known by all on the campus, and all were sorry to see him leave early in the year to join the armed forces.

MARY ANN BEAM, Clio—We can't be sure what inspires her dreamy look, but on her it looks good. She has been a Society officer, a member of the Volunteer Band and the Home Makers Guild.

RACHEL BRUTON, Non—This one has a little bit of Shakespeare in her blood. Her success as an English major can easily be foreseen in her "Come Vi'let Time." She has been vice-president of the Nonpareil Society, house president, Y. W. A. circle leader, vice-president of the Volunteer Band, and a member of the Dramatics Club.

WINONA SUMMER, Non—"Nona" spends much of her time in the Band, but she doesn't limit herself to that. She has been in the Y. W. A. and Volunteer Band, vice-president of the Gaston County Club, and secretary of the Nonpareil Society.

LAURA NELLE SCHRUM, Non—We know her as "Larry"—president of her Sunday School class, winner of the Silver Temperance Medal, historian of the Dramatics Club, a member of the Science Club and of the Catawba-Caldwell County Club.

BEAM BRUTON SUMMER SCHRUM

BROWN BAILEY DORSEY BROWN

RUBY BROWN, Clio—Diligence in all things has won for Ruby a membership in the Business Club. She has been a Society officer, and a member of the Catawba-Caldwell County Club.

HOPE BAILEY, Non—Hope thinks in terms of a G clef and a melody, and right good thinking she does, too. She has been secretary of the Scriblerus Club, a Sunday School officer, a member of the Ensemble, of the Mixed Chorus, of the Glee Club, and of the German Club.

MARTHA DORSEY, Non—"Marty" has that quiet dignity which speaks for itself. She has been a member of the Glee Club, the Dramatics Club, Society treasurer, Sunday School class president, and first vice-president of Y. W. A.

IRENE BROWN, Clio—Now here's a business girl for you—business manager of the LAUREL. Irene has also been a Society officer and a member of the Catawba-Caldwell County Club.

LUCILLE SAWYER, Non—Lucille's ever-ready smile and rare ability to understand people can't be duplicated. She has been secretary of the Nonpareil Society, a member of the B. S. U. Council, Scriblerus Club, Orchestra, Glee Club, Y. T. C., a college marshal, a Volunteer Band officer, and a B. T. U. officer.

PAULINE BELL, Non—Music is "Polly's" first love. What would music lab be without her? It seems that her talents are recognized by quite a few. She has been pianist of the Nonpareil Society, pianist of the B. T. U., a member of the Y. W. A. Council, of the Glee Club, of the Orchestra, of the Band, of the Volunteer Band, and a B. T. U. officer.

SALLIE RAY BOWERS, Clio—Sallie Ray is another musician—her red hair is quite distinctive too. She has been in the Glee Club and Mixed Chorus, a Society officer, a B. T. U. officer, Y. T. C. pianist, Y. W. A. circle leader, and a member of the Volunteer Band.

SAWYER BELL BOWERS

LAWING BUNN GUARD WHITESIDE

YVONNE LAWING, Clio—When it comes to acting, she is tops! She has been president of the Scriblerus Club, secretary-treasurer of the Dramateers, a Society officer, and a B. T. U. officer.

IMOGENE BUNN, Clio—"Bunny's" wit is known by everyone. She has been president of her Sunday School class, a B. T. U. officer, and a Society officer.

NINA GUARD, Clio—"Chief" fires those ten-syllable words with nonchalant ease. We think she's a brain. Look at the record if you need convincing. She has been editor in chief of the Hilltop, president of Scriblerus Club, a Society officer, reporter of the Dramateers, an inter-collegiate debater, and a Sunday School officer.

EDNA WHITESIDE, Nou—Edna is the embodiment of all those virtues to which one wishes to aspire. Her pertness made its way about the campus. She has been an active member of the Glee Club.

FRANK GREGORY, En—Frank has a flair for the athletic and journalistic. He has been a Society officer and sports editor of the Hilltop. He played baseball, football, and intramural basketball.

MAC SELLERS, En—Right now Mac is doing his best for the U. S. Navy. While here he did his best as Society censor, B. T. U. officer, Sunday School officer, a member of I. R. C. and the debating team.

WILLIAM JOHNSON—"Bill"—This shy, reserved, but congenial boy, is an honor student. His love for mathematics and algebra made him known by all in his classes as one to whom they could go for help at any time. His quiet friendliness was missed very much on his leaving the campus to join Uncle Sam's Air Forces.

GREGORY SELLERS JOHNSON

BUCHANAN CHAPMAN MOORE

CHRISTINE BUCHANAN, Non—Christine has shown her sufficiency as president of B. T. U., a Society officer, a member of Y. W. A., of the Volunteer Band, and of the Glee Club.

YVONNA CHAPMAN, Clio—"I Threw a Kiss in the Ocean" is Yvonna's theme song. Writing letters to sailors has not occupied all her time. She has been treasurer of Clio Society, Business Club secretary, and a B. T. U. officer.

ANN MOORE, Clio—A quiet, calm character spreads a refreshing peace to those about. Ann has this calmness—and, yet, have you ever seen quietness overflow and become pleasant vivacity?

ELLA MAE HESSEE, Clio—"Time Was" when a person described beautiful hair by saying, "She can even sit on it." We can't say that now, but, gee, it's the envy of any girl. Ella Mae has been treasurer of the I. R. C. and a member of the Y. W. A.

FRANCES POPE, Clio—"Pope" is really quite a girl! For example, she has been C-I Clio Society president, a college marshal, on the B. S. U. Council, in the Volunteer Band, in the Scriblerus Club, in the Dramatics Club, and in the Catawba-Caldwell County Club.

GRACE ANDERSON, Clio—Grace would be hard to forget, even if anyone wanted to try. She has certainly done her bit here as treasurer of the C-I class, vice-president and president of the I. R. C., vice-president and president of her Sunday School class, vice-president of Clio Society, literary editor of the LAUREL, a college marshal, a member of the Glee Club, and of the Y. T. C.

JANE LEE, Clio—Jane believes in variety. She has proved that versatility pays. She has been vice-president and forensic term president of Clio Society, president of the Dramatics Club, B. T. U. officer, secretary of the Glee Club, and feature editor of the LAUREL.

HESSEE POPE ANDERSON LEE

GREEN EDGERTON SARGEANT HARDIN

GEORGE GREEN, Phi—Sometimes he's jocular, sometimes solemn—maybe just a "man of moods"; but as a nice looking, congenial blond, George has won many admirers. He has been in the Glee Club, a Phi treasurer, and on the football team.

BILL EDGERTON, Phi—Bill is another of those "mailmen." He also likes sports and participated in intramural basketball. He may have been slow at first, but when he found the right one, he was as solid as a rock.

A. G. SARGEANT, Phi—He's in the Army now and is carrying the mail for the War Department. "Sarge" was a pre-med student and carried the ball in intramural football and basketball. Since he will have no use for it in the Army, we wish he'd left his way with the girls to some of the boys on the campus.

WILLIAM HARDIN—"Bill" is valuable as an unforgettable acquaintance—maybe because he was on the scene in football. As an observing person, quiet, yet amicable, he will find his place wherever he goes.

LOUISE JAMERSON, Clio — Louise's comforting and friendly words make her best known to those with whom she is most intimate. Her determination won her a place as a Society officer, a Y. W. A. officer, a B. T. U. officer, and as a member of the Scriblerus Club, Orchestra, and Tri-County Club.

RUTH METCALF—Ruth's individuality comes to the surface in the Art Club. Her love for nature and art holds first place in her everyday life.

SADIE WALLIN—Sadie is always quiet and conservative, two characteristics we like in anyone. She has been a member of the Art Club.

JAMERSON METCALF WALLIN

SNYDER HAYES FALLAW SHUPE

BETTY SNYDER, Clio—Betty's genuine good nature and outstanding abilities have won for her a host of Mars Hill friends. While here she has been in the Volunteer Band, the Y. W. A., the Glee Club, the B. T. U., and the French Club.

YVONNE HAYES, Clio—Little Miss Hayes is interested in a type writer and a shorthand pad. We can foretell a bright future for her in the realm of business. Yvonne has been an officer in her Sunday School class.

IDELLA FALLAW, Clio—Idella has that wistful sort of beauty that makes us wishful, and she is an English major who looks the part. She has been president of her Sunday School class, president of the South Carolina Club, a Society officer, and a member of the Scriblerus Club.

ALINE SHUPE, Clio—Aline works and strives and studies. What for? Why, to be able to take shorthand dictation at 120 words per minute. She'll succeed too, because she has been so successful as secretary of the Business Club, a Sunday School officer, and as a Society officer.

JANE JOHNSON, Non—In this "little one" is embodied the very essence of efficiency. But wait—it's not a dull thing. It's more of an innate quality which radiates through her arresting individuality. Jane has been president of her Sunday School class, president of the Business Club, censor of Nonpareil Society, a college marshal, a member of the Y. T. C., of the Y. W. A., and of the Glee Club.

JEAN MILLS, Clio—This little "Song-bird of 'The Hill'" has cheered many hearts with her merry tunes and twinkling smile. The Ensemble and Glee Club would be incomplete without her. She has also been a member of the South Carolina Club, of the Y. W. A., of Y. T. C., a Sunday School officer, and censor and commencement president of the Clios.

FLORENCE RHEA, Clio—Everybody knows "Flo." Everybody likes "Flo." Why? Why, just because. She has been president of the W. A. A., a B. T. U. officer, a member of Y. W. A., and an officer of Clio.

RACHAEL McCLAIN, Non—This quiet, dignified girl will be long remembered by her fellow students. In other words, she has what it takes. She has been editor in chief of the LAUREL, Forensic president of the Nonpareil Society, a Sunday School officer, a member of the Business Club, of the Y. T. C., and of the Y. W. A.

JOHNSON MILLS RHEA McCLAIN

WOOD TAYLOR CHERRY

MARIE WOOD, Non—When a person has a good nature, you just have to like her. That's why Marie has so many friends. She has been a B. T. U. officer, a Sunday School officer, and a member of the Y. W. A. and Home Makers Guild.

HELEN TAYLOR, Clio—Constancy and sweet-nature go a long way in this world, so will one who has an abundance of these qualities. Helen has been a member of the Glee Club, of the Y. W. A. council, of the Volunteer Band, of the Y. T. C., of the Y. W. A., and president of the B. T. U.

MILDRED CHERRY, Clio—"Cherry" is indeed rightly named because her cheerful sweetness can be felt by all with whom she comes in contact. She has been a B. T. U. officer and college marshal and in the Classical Club and Y. W. A.

HONEYCUTT BRADFORD DIXON SINCLAIR
(Foreground)

BARRON HONEYCUTT—Barron is another of our older ministerial students who have filled a large place on the campus. Because of the esteem in which he is held, he has been president and secretary of the Ministerial Conference.

PAUL BRADFORD—He is cute as a brunette and even as a blond. He has been a B. T. U. officer, college marshal, and in the Classical Club at night. And yet, you can't blame him too much for his pranks; he seems to enjoy them so much.

ROBERT DIXON, Phi—Bob's interests are music and sports. It seems impossible to have the feminine touch on a violin and the masculinity of boxing combined in one person—but so it is with Bob. He has been in the Orchestra and on the tumbling team.

ALLEN SINCLAIR, Phi—Allen is known as the "mailman" to Brown and Melrose girls. He has been C-I vice-president and secretary of the Philomathian Society, secretary of the Science Club, a B. T. U. officer, and a member of the Y. T. C.

FLORENCE GORDON, Clio—Now what can be said about Florence that the local bards have not said more effectively? As Shakespeare might have written, Who is "Flash"? What is she, that all the swains commend her? Why B. S. U. president, of course. We might add a little word of her inspirational qualities and her admirable efficiency, but we could not say it well enough. Florence has been a member of the Science Club, in the Home Makers Guild, a Society officer, a B. T. U. officer, commencement representative, a member of the Forensic Council, of the Volunteer Band, and an inter-collegiate debater.

JOYCE HOWELL, Clio—Take a load of originality and mix it with a pleasing personality and you have "Howell." She has been a member of the Y. W. A., B. T. U., Y. T. C., Band, Glee Club, Volunteer Band, and Cabarrus County Club. She has also served as vice-president of the C-II class, vice-president of the Clio Society, and on the Y. W. A. Council.

JANE GUNTER, Non—"Gunter" has a way about her. You see it's this way. She has been C-I term president of Nonpareil Society, Sunday School superintendent, a member of the Dramatics Club, of Volunteer Band, and of Y. T. C.

ELLEN GOFORTH, Clio—Neat from head to toe, Ellen's looks conform to her sweet simple manner. She left second semester to enter Duke School of Nursing. She was anniversary president of the Clio Society, secretary of New Dormitory, general secretary of Sunday School, president of the Rutherford County Club, a member of the I. R. C., of the Y. T. C., and a Y. W. A. officer.

ORA LEE, Clio—Tiny Miss Lee can take a whole audience and hold it in the palm of her hand. Quite a feat, but she does it casually. She has been a Sunday School officer, president of the Dramatics Club, vice-president and president of the Business Club, Y. T. C. officer, and a member of the Speech Choir.

ALLINE RHOADS, Clio—Alline's energy on the basketball court is exemplified in her daily living. She has been a Sunday School officer, Y. W. A. secretary, and a member of the Basketball Club.

CLEO GRADY, Non—Sweet-natured and indefatigable—that's what she is—always on the go, sometimes. Cleo has been a Sunday School officer, a B. T. U. officer, and a member of Y. T. C.

GORDON HOWELL GUNTER GOFORTH

LEE RHOADS GRADY

PIERCE HUDSON HOLTON

KATHERINE PIERCE, Non—With such lovely eyes to see things through, small wonder "Kit" always wears an appreciative smile. She has been secretary of W. A. A., treasurer of Dramatics Club, vice-president of the Business Club, a Society officer, vice-president of her Sunday School class, and president of the Caldwell-Catawba County Club.

ALBERTA HUDSON, Non—Alberta may be small, but the beauty of "that cute little girl" is nothing to be overlooked. She has been secretary and treasurer of the Spanish Club, president of a Y. T. C. group, and a B. T. U. officer.

PITTS SPURLING SPANGLER TURNER

HOLLON HOLTON, Non—Hollon is 1A when it comes to sports, for instance, a clean dive, a whirling tennis ball, and a perfect score in phys. ed. What more could one ask? She has been a member of the W. A. A., of the Tennis Club, of the Swimming Club, of the Home Makers Guild, a Y. W. A. officer, and a Sunday School officer.

ROCKY PITTS, Phi—Rocky's happiness is always bursting forth with a gleeful smile and a song. He's still on top of the world, for he left us to fly up where the silence of nature is a song. He was B. T. U. president, a Society officer, co-captain of a football team, and a member of the basketball team, tumbling team, and Glee Club.

CARROL SPURLING, Eu—The "doctor," who has a reserved seat in the library, is said to have worn out more books than the rest of the students collectively. He has been a Sunday School officer, a Science Club officer, Society vice-president and censor, chief college marshal, and an anniversary speaker.

HAROLD SPANGLER, Phi—Did you notice those smiling brown eyes behind that Phi desk, behind the microphone, or behind that ping pong paddle? They were none other than Harold's, who has been president and secretary of Phi Society, president of Science Club, president of Forensic Club, a college marshal, associate editor of the LAUREL, president of B. T. U., commencement representative, biology lab assistant, master of ceremonies of Matinee at M. H. C., and a member of Volunteer Band.

RAEFORD TURNER, Phi—To have a friend is to be one. That's Ray's motto whether he is calling the class to order, wandering around on the campus, or beating it out on those drums. He has been president of the Senior Class, anniversary president of the Phis, a member of Y. T. C., and a Sunday School officer. He also played tennis, football, basketball, and was on the tumbling team.

BALL LANEY HUDSON

THELMA BALL, Clio—If you go into Thelma's room and see nothing but a pile of books, be patient, for soon you'll see her head emerge victoriously. She has been a B. T. U. officer, a member of the Y. W. A., and of the Volunteer Band.

MARY ETHEL LANEY, Clio—Mary Ethel never lets anything go by unnoticed—even things that are said in class! She has been active in the Y. W. A., B. T. U., and Sunday School.

MAVIS HUDSON, Clio—When you go by the English conference room and see Mavis sitting there, take it from us, she isn't there just for impression—that girl really works. She has been a member of B. T. U., Y. W. A., Volunteer Band, I. R. C., and W. A. A.

BROOKS PENINGER TEAGUE TEAGUE

NORMA BROOKS, Non—From her apparent solemn expression you wouldn't think "Brooksie" can laugh as much and as heartily as she does. Her favorite is "Red" (color of course). She has been a Y. W. A. officer, house president, and a member of the Scriblerus Club.

FRANCES PENINGER, Clio—We just can't make up our minds whether "Penny" is a "tough guy" or a "sissy"; but, to settle it, we'll admit that she possesses to a high degree a pleasant personality and sweet nature. She has been B. T. U. president, Sunday School officer, and Friendship Circle leader.

HELEN TEAGUE, Non—If music be the food of life, play on because Helen is about to starve. She has been president of the Science Club, president of Home Makers Guild, assistant chief college marshal, a member of Y. T. C. and of Caldwell County Club.

ANNIE CATHERINE TEAGUE, Non—Collecting dry cleaning is a pretty good excuse to wander around the halls any time during study hour, but whether P. C. or P. K. we always welcome her smile. She has been on the Y. W. A. council, a B. T. U. officer, and a member of the Caldwell County Club.

WALL PORTER HARRIS MUNDY

BLACKSTONE MORTON MARTIN CLARK

JEANNE WALL, Clio—When you see this photo-conscious lassie coming, you'd better run or she'll take your picture before you know it. Yes Jeanne is photography editor of the LAUREL, and, besides, she is a member of the Band, of the Orchestra, of the Scriblerus Club., of the Y. T. C., of the Dramatics Club, a Sunday School president, and a Society Officer.

CELESTE PORTER, Non — Celeste means heavenly. Miss Porter was named correctly, we're sure you'll agree. "Sissy," a transfer from Shorter College, Rome, Georgia, quickly made a place for herself on the campus. She has been vice-president of the Spanish Club, Y. W. A. Circle leader, Y. W. A. vice-president and chaplain, and House president.

FRANCES HARRIS, Non—Her understanding companionship made her lovable to all. Her faithfulness and determination for any duty coming to her made her outstanding as Y. W. A. vice-president and in her work in Society.

MARY MUNDY, Clio—Flaming hair and personality twice as bright are Mary's prize possessions. She has been a Society officer, a vice-president of the French Club, a member of Glee Club, and of the Dramatics Club.

ADGER BLACKSTONE—Adger may be small, but he is plenty mighty, especially when it comes to ping pong and tumbling. His quiet friendship hides under the cloak of shyness.

EDWIN MORTON, Pbi—"Doc" is a loyal Philomathian. He takes everything seriously, but is good-natured in being the object of many jokes. He has the promise of being a true "Doc" some day after his return from the Navy.

RAYMOND MARTIN, En—It has been said that the eyes are a mirror of the soul. Raymond's eyes reflect a sincerity and firmness of character and a definiteness of purpose. He has been treasurer and secretary of the Eus, a Sunday School officer, a B. T. U. officer, and a group president of the Y. T. C.

DACUS CLARK, Pbi—Dacus is a modern Romeo who is a bit slow for his day. When he does get started, he gets in "Dutch." He spends his spare time reading Plato and modern philosophy.

LYDIA CHISOLM, Non—Here's a little lassie from just a little bit south of North Carolina. Lydia left us about the middle of the year, and that little blonde head has been missed quite a bit—but definitely.

RACHEL MESSICK, Non—It's none other than Rachel's short red hair that you see bobbing up here and there on the campus. She has been a Sunday School officer, a Society officer, Friendship Circle leader, a B. T. U. officer, and a member of Y. W. A. and Volunteer Band.

ELIZABETH ROE, Clio—"Lib" is blonde, blithe, and becomingly pretty. She spends much of her time in the Home Ec lab. She is also a member of the Home Makers Guild, of the Y. W. A., of the Y. T. C., and B. T. U.

KATHERINE ULMER, Non—"Kat," who has a ready laugh, has made quite a place for herself in the hearts of Mars Hill folk. She can do things, too, as evidenced by the fact that she has been B. T. U. officer, Friendship Circle leader, and a member of the Science Club, Glee Club, Volunteer Band, Archery Club, and Caldwell-Catawba County Club.

HELEN THOMPSON, Clio—"Give a man a horse he can ride," but give Helen a basketball she can shoot and she is satisfied. She has been a member of Volunteer Band, of Y. T. C., intramurals, and of Y. W. A.

MARGARET SHACKLEFORD, Clio—Margaret is most interested in sports and enters into every game with a determination to win. She has been a W. A. A. officer and a member of the Emblem Club. She is also Friendship Circle president, and a member of Y. T. C., B. T. U., and Y. W. A.

NORA WILLS, Clio—Nora is a titian blonde, whose hair is the envy of all the girls and a focus for the eyes of the boys. In her studies—well, she eats 'em up. She has been house president, secretary of Clio Society, a member of W. A. A., Y. T. C., and Y. W. A.

CHISOLM MESSICK ROE ULMER

THOMPSON SHACKLEFORD WILLS

WATTS LYTTLE HENDERSON CHANDLER

CLARA LEE WATTS, Non—"Silence is golden" and it must be for Clara Lee. Just take a look at her grades and see for yourself. She has been president of B. T. U., a Y. W. A. Circle leader, and a member of the Volunteer Band.

PAULINE LYTTLE, Clio—A soft step in the hall, a quiet voice in the room, and a shy smile on her face make everyone know "Polly" as a friend. She has been president of her B. T. U. group, secretary of the Volunteer Band, and circle secretary of Y. W. A.

SUE HENDERSON, Clio—No matter how high Sue's head gets in the clouds, she always keeps her feet on the ground. She has been president of her Sunday School class, a B. T. U. officer, Y. W. A. member, and a County Club officer.

LOIS CHANDLER, Clio—Red hair, a jolly smile, and a brain make Lois' personality outstanding. She is interested especially in the religious life on the campus. She has been a B. T. U. officer, Y. T. C. officer, and a member of the Y. W. A. Council. She does not limit herself to these; she is also in the Dramatics Club, Spanish Club, and Speech Choir.

ISABELL NOBLITT, Clio—Never a dull moment with Isabell, who can always ask the most unexpected questions at the most unexpected times. She has been vice-president of the Classical Club, vice-president of Dramatics Club, and a member of Y. W. A.

RACHEL BAILEY, Non—Dependable, diligent, determined—that's Rachel. If character and work will win success, she is destined for a place in the sun. She is a member of the Tri-County Club, Y. W. A., and B. T. U.

MARIE DAVIS, Clio—As still water runs deep, there is a depth in the quiet personality of Marie. She is an aspiring journalist and poet. She has participated in basketball and tennis, and is a member of W. A. A. Other than this she is on the Hilltop staff and one of the Y. W. A. circle leaders.

NOBLITT BAILEY DAVIS

ALICE COOK, Clio—"Cooky" is sincere in all her work and to all her many friends. She has been secretary of her Sunday School class, and a member of the Basketball Club, Soccer and Hockey Clubs, Archery Club, and Swimming Club.

MERLE SILVERS, Clio—"I don't have my accounting homework—" "Where's Merle?" That's quite a common expression heard from Merle and her friends. Outside her business activities, she has found time for the Science Club, Y. W. A., Sunday School president, Y. T. C., Volunteer Band, and W. A. A.

ETHEL RAY, Clio—Her quick bright eyes take us all in, and we don't mind being taken in by the charming Ethel. She has been a Society officer, president of her Sunday School class, a member of Forensic Council, Scriblerus Club, Basketball Club, Hockey Club, Tennis Team, and Madison County Club.

MERTON SIMONS—"Mert" and his boogie woogie really tune up our Campus. Underneath his rather indifferent actions lies the most understanding, sympathetic, lovable heart that you could wish for in a friend. He has been editor in chief of the Hilltop, co-captain of football, president of the Art Club, and a member of the Science Club, Spanish Club, basketball team, and baseball team.

ARTHUR WOOD, Phi—"Art," a lover of people, is loved and well-known by all in return. His leadership of the Phis as C-I president started that society off on a good foundation. He was also a college marshal, a star player on the first-string basketball team, and co-captain of the football team before he left for the Army Air Corps.

JOHN LEE—"Hook" is little but loud, to say the least. He is fast as greased lightning when it comes to boxing. Under his apt guidance as captain of the tumbling team and manager of the football team, both were a grand success. He has also been active in intramural basketball.

COOK SILVERS RAY

SIMONS WOOD LEE

McKEE WARD SWICEGOOD BLOUNT

DORIS McKEE, Clio—"McKee" has a graciousness of manner that is quite unusual. It's there, and, yet, one wonders what it is that makes her so attractive. She has been a Society officer.

KATHLEEN WARD, Non—Vivaciousness—yes, but not without a certain indescribable down-to-earthness—it's none other that Kat Ward. Kat has been a Society officer, a typist for the Hilltop, and a member of the soccer, hockey, and softball teams.

DORIS SWICEGOOD, Non—To be able to laugh hilariously with a pleasing effect is quite a difficult thing to do. Yet, Swicegood does it without any trouble whatsoever. She has been a member of the Glee Club, of the Tennis, Archery, Softball, Hockey, and Soccer Clubs.

RUTH BLOUNT, Non—Ruth, in her quiet, interesting manner, is utterly charming. She has been society editor of the LAUREL, a Society officer, and a member of the Tennis and Hockey Club.

CLARA LEE DEDMON, Clio—Clara Lee has been a Society officer and a member of Y. W. A., but usually when one sees her she is wondering what she did to make her balance sheet unbalanced. In other words, accounting seems to be uppermost in that pretty head.

LILLIAN OGBURN, Clio—Beauty cannot adequately be described; yet, we know that it describes Lillian. She has been a Society officer and a member of Y. W. A.

BETTY HALL, Clio—Betty had to leave us about the middle of the year, but not before we knew and loved her. She was the girl with the striking looks and the super-abundance of S. P.'s. Nothing pleased her better than a nice quiet (?) afternoon at Campus Corner. Betty was a Society marshal and a member of Y. W. A.

DEDMON OGBURN HALL

LYLES HUNT BALDING SHEARIN

MARSHALL LINVILLE ROGERS BARNES

MYRTLE LYLES, Non—There go third lights. Why that couldn't be. Second lights only flashed two minutes ago. Poor Myrtle! Yet she keeps that smile on her lips in spite of those same old remarks every night. She has been a B. T. U. officer and a member of the Volunteer Band, of the Spanish Club, and of Y. W. A.

MARY HUNT—Did anybody ever have to persuade you to answer a long distance call from a soldier? Well, Mary had to be persuaded once. It must be pretty wonderful to be particular and get by with it. She has been a B. T. U. officer and a member of Y. W. A.

MABEL BALDING, Clio—Mabel never has time on her hands because she always finds something to do. Maybe we should follow her example, because that's one way of getting things done. She has been treasurer of the Business Club, a B. T. U. officer, and a Y. W. A. member.

PAGE SHEARIN, Clio—A girl with an accounting book in her hand? That's Page. But she doesn't stop there. She has been a B. T. U. officer and a member of Y. W. A.

RAY MARSHALL, Eu—Ray is a boy who leads others to see Christ in him. His love for Greek is amazing to all! He has been president of his Sunday School class, president of the Classical Club, and Euthalian declaimer at commencement.

RAY LINVILLE—Ray, one of the married ministerial men of the campus, makes friends with all and is considered as "one of the boys." He belongs to the Ministerial Conference and is active in all religious activities.

FRANK ROGERS—Frank is a well-known ministerial student. He is a full-time pastor and family man; yet he has made a high record as a student and displayed his leadership as president of the Ministerial Conference.

F. M. BARNES, Phi—His gentle persuasiveness won him many admirers and followers. Although he preaches in surrounding churches on Sundays, he has found time for being president of the Ministerial Conference and chaplain of the Phis.

KIRK NEWSOME MYERS

DELITE KIRK, Clio—She is really quite “DeLite” ful to know because of her outstanding sense of humor. She has been a B. T. U. officer and a member of the Y. W. A.

IULA NEWSOME, Non—A swimming pool is Iula’s second home. She can glide through water with an easy gracefulness and confidence that is hard to beat. She has been a member of the W. A. A. and Y. W. A. circle leader.

RACHEL MYERS, Non—Under Rachel’s reserved manner is a true beauty of character which adds a glow to her daily living. Her work in the Business Department has earned for her membership in the Business Club. She has also been a member of the Iredell County Club.

SARAH JAMES—For many people a history book sounds dull, but not for Sarah. She penetrates the dull cover and finds a living interest there. She has participated in the activities of the Y. W. A.

MARY ELLIS REESE, Clio—We always hear of the abundance of snow at Mars Hill. So far, we have found that “Snow” seems to be for Mary Ellis alone. She has been a Y. W. A. officer, manager of the Swimming Club, and participant in all sports.

ELIZABETH WELLS, Non — “Betty’s” casual, meditative way of speaking has won her many friends who feel free to confide in her. It looks as if the nursing profession were made for her. She has been a member of Y. T. C., of the Volunteer Band, of the Art Club, and of the Y. W. A.

JEAN WEBSTER, Clio—A swish of her long, blonde hair and a twist of her nimble body—and Jean has knocked another ball over the net. Not in vain either—for she was tennis champion for her C-I year. But wait—that isn’t all—she has been secretary of the Dramatics Club, a society officer, a Y. W. A. leader, and a member of W. A. A.

JAMES REESE WELLS WEBSTER

KYLE CARTER—A shy, timid, but pleasant boy, he is the friend of all the boys, but he doesn't go out for girls much. His support on the football team made his team look to him for that needed yardage. His pleasant smile is missed since his entrance into the armed forces.

HERMAN JENRETTE, Pbi—Herman's dependability has made him valuable as a Society officer, a member of B. T. U., and of Sunday School. After all, silent service is what puts a man down as a true individual.

JACK BUCKNER—There is something of the strength of the hills in Jack. He is characterized by his faithfulness to his many duties, a pervading sense of humor, and his generosity toward others. He is pastor of two local churches and a member of the Ministerial Conference.

ELEANOR CLARKE, Clio—"Red's" vivaciousness and gleaming hair have really been missed since she left to work in the Wachovia Bank. As a cheer leader she just made one yell—he just couldn't help it. She was in W. A. A., the Business Club, Y. W. A., and Glee Club and a Sunday School secretary.

DORA PICKETT, Non—A flash of an eye, a nonchalant action, and a quick smile—yes, it's none other than Dora. Life is easy for one who makes it that way.

MARGARET POOLE, Clio—Margaret, a transfer from Louisburg, has that casual manner which is genuine and delightful. She has been a member of W. A. A., a Society marshal, and a member of the Y. W. A.

AILEEN HAWKINS, Clio—Her debonair actions and lovely complexion create within us a pleasing awe. She has been a member of the Spanish Club and of the Y. W. A.
